

IPM Combinatorics II: Design Theory, Graph Theory, and Computational Methods
April 22-27, 2006, IPM, Tehran

Bounds for the Chromatic Number of General Graphs and Graphs with High Girth

M. Zaker

Institute For Advanced Studies in Basic Sciences (IASBS)
Zanjan, Iran

In the talk we first give an upper bound for the chromatic number of a general graph in terms of its degrees. Then we obtain bounds of the form $O(n^\epsilon)$ for graphs with high girth where n is the order of graph.