

The First IPM Conference on Algebraic Graph Theory, April 21-26, 2007, IPM, Tehran

Type-II Matrices and Association Schemes

Ch. Godsil

*University of Waterloo
Ontario, Canada*

Type-II matrix are a generalisation of Hadamard matrices which arose in work in operator theory. Certain special classes of type-II matrices, known as spin models, were used by Vaughan Jones to produce new invariants of knots and links. I will present an overview of the combinatorial aspects of these matrices, and their connections to association schemes.