

Acknowledgements

First of all I would like to thank Dr. G. B. Khosrovshahi for providing the opportunity of delivering a series of lectures at IPM and considering these notes for publication in IPM lecture notes series.

I would like to thank Dr. M. Shahshahani for inviting me to present the lectures in his number theory seminar which provided a great audience for my lectures. I also would like to thank the students participating in the lectures.

Mr. Mehdi Hassani carefully proof read these notes, I would like to thank him for his many valuable comments.

Parts of the notes of the third lecture is from Mr. Shahab Shahabi's M.Sc. thesis. I would like to thank him for allowing me to include them here.
