

International Workshop on Computer Vision, April 26-30, 2004, IPM, Tehran

The Natural Pseudodistance: A Geometric-Topological Tool for Comparing Shapes

P. Frosini

Dipartimento di Matematica

Universita di Bologna

Italy

The concept of natural pseudodistance allows a quantitative comparison between shapes described as manifolds paired with real functions. In this lecture the main definitions and some examples are given. Some properties of the natural pseudodistance are highlighted.